

EXPLORE Asian America

Spring 2020 Course Listing 1

Academic Reading and Writing Level I

The theme of this integrated skills cluster is Inequality and Exclusion in the United States by reading books about Asian Americans and taking a field trip to Boston.

ESL-078-01 I / ESL-079-01I | J. Kerstner
MW 8:30 AM – 9:45 AM B127
MW 10:00 AM – 11:15 AM B127

Academic Reading and Writing Level I

In this course, students will study immigrant communities in the Boston area, including Chinatown, Malden, and the Latin Quarter in Jamaica Plain.

ESL-078-03I / ESL-079-03 I | J. Valdez
TTH 8:30 AM – 9:45 AM B222
TTH 10:00 AM – 11:15 AM B222

Academic Reading and Writing Level I

In this ESL Integrated paired course, you will explore different theories and ideas around beliefs and dreams. You will develop a deeper understanding of how individual dreams fit into society through reading the novel The Circuit by Francisco Jimenez, as well as Asian American and Muslim American literature.

ESL-078-02I / ESL-079-02I | L. Naggie
TTH 10:00 AM – 11:15 AM B135B
TTH 11:30 AM – 12:45 PM B135B

Academic Reading and Writing Level II, III & College Writing I

In this advanced ESL and ENG 111 Cluster, students read personal narratives and short stories from writers of several cultural backgrounds, including Asian American writers. Students will learn about each other's cultures by telling their own stories, analyzing literature, participating in place-based learning, and researching cultural foods.

ESL-098-01HBI / ESL-099-01HBI / ENG-111-53CI | J. Valdez & A. Paul
M 10:00 AM – 11:15 AM B135A
M 11:30 AM – 12:45 PM B135A
W 10:00 AM – 12:45 PM B132

Writing Skills II and College Writing I

The course will include a unit exploring themes of the model minority myth, immigration and African American/ Asian American relations as we read the novel The Sun is Also A Star by Nicola Yoon.

ENG -095-10C / ENG-111- 23C | S. Berger
MW 10:00 AM – 11:15 AM H148
MW 11:30 AM - 12:45 PM H148

ENG-095-17C/ENG-111-38C | S. Berger
TTH 8:30 AM - 9:45 AM H148
TTH 10:00 AM – 11:15 AM H148

College Writing I

In this course, students will have opportunities to be more informed and critically examine multiple Asian American diasporas.

ENG-111- CH3 | N. Akai-Dennis
MW 1:20 PM – 2:35 PM Chelsea HS

EXPLORE Asian America

Spring 2020 Course Listing 1

Academic Reading and Writing Level I

The theme of this integrated skills cluster is Inequality and Exclusion in the United States by reading books about Asian Americans and taking a field trip to Boston.

ESL-078-01 I / ESL-079-01I | J. Kerstner
MW 8:30 AM – 9:45 AM B127
MW 10:00 AM – 11:15 AM B127

Academic Reading and Writing Level I

In this course, students will study immigrant communities in the Boston area, including Chinatown, Malden, and the Latin Quarter in Jamaica Plain.

ESL-078-03I / ESL-079-03 I | J. Valdez
TTH 8:30 AM – 9:45 AM B222
TTH 10:00 AM – 11:15 AM B222

Academic Reading and Writing Level I

In this ESL Integrated paired course, you will explore different theories and ideas around beliefs and dreams. You will develop a deeper understanding of how individual dreams fit into society through reading the novel The Circuit by Francisco Jimenez, as well as Asian American and Muslim American literature.

ESL-078-02I / ESL-079-02I | L. Naggie
TTH 10:00 AM – 11:15 AM B135B
TTH 11:30 AM – 12:45 PM B135B

Academic Reading and Writing Level II, III & College Writing I

In this advanced ESL and ENG 111 Cluster, students read personal narratives and short stories from writers of several cultural backgrounds, including Asian American writers. Students will learn about each other's cultures by telling their own stories, analyzing literature, participating in place-based learning, and researching cultural foods.

ESL-098-01HBI / ESL-099-01HBI / ENG-111-53CI | J. Valdez & A. Paul
M 10:00 AM – 11:15 AM B135A
M 11:30 AM – 12:45 PM B135A
W 10:00 AM – 12:45 PM B132

Writing Skills II and College Writing I

The course will include a unit exploring themes of the model minority myth, immigration and African American/ Asian American relations as we read the novel The Sun is Also A Star by Nicola Yoon.

ENG -095-10C / ENG-111- 23C | S. Berger
MW 10:00 AM – 11:15 AM H148
MW 11:30 AM - 12:45 PM H148

ENG-095-17C/ENG-111-38C | S. Berger
TTH 8:30 AM - 9:45 AM H148
TTH 10:00 AM – 11:15 AM H148

College Writing I

In this course, students will have opportunities to be more informed and critically examine multiple Asian American diasporas.

ENG-111- CH3 | N. Akai-Dennis
MW 1:20 PM – 2:35 PM Chelsea HS

EXPLORE Asian America

Spring 2020 Course Listing 2

Calculus I

This course will study the application of calculus to include topics on Asian American issues to develop students construction of mathematical knowledge and promote positive learning practices.

MAT-281 WB | J. Frye
Web Course

Counseling

This course covers Multicultural Counseling, especially minorities' mental health and identity related with acculturation, race, sexism, and cultural background.

PSY-215-01 | S. Hong
MW 10:00 AM - 11:15 AM H149

Cultural Anthropology

This course will have Boston Chinatown as the field location for students to demonstrate ability to apply concepts and techniques in the field of Cultural Anthropology.

SOC 109-01 | A. Bautista
T 10-12:45 Chinatown

Cultural Anthropology

This course will use the Chinatown setting to begin an ethnographic investigation into changing place and culture within Boston's Chinatown. Students will begin investigation through ethnographic fieldwork by identifying and interviewing key players, mapping place and spaces, developing conceptual frameworks, problematizing and writing initial draft ethnographies of Chinatown culture 2020. This will be a long-term ethnographic project.

SOC 109-01 | R. Whitman
W 10-12:45 H

Drawing from Observation

This course will include an exploration of Asian American community and lifestyle in Boston. There will be lessons on how to draw Chinese tea-pot and tea-cup from observation, and students will visit a local Asian supermarket.

VMA-104-WB | Y. Chen
Web Course

Principles of Psychology

This course will include an exploration of Asian American stereotypes and mental health issues.

PSY-101-WBL | M. Arai
Web Course Late Start

Principles of Psychology

The theme of this introductory course in Psychology, Using Psychology to Become Resilient and Successful, is intended to help you navigate successfully through life's challenges by learning from the experiences of Asian American communities and what you may actually share in common with them.

PSY-101- 23 | M. Puente
T 2:30 - 5:15 D217

PSY-101- 26 | M. Puente
TH 2:30 - 5:15 D217

PSY-101- WB4 | M. Puente
Web Course

Statistics I

This course will use national surveys to statistically analyze Asian American demographics and viewpoints on social issues, political topics, and cultural identity.

MAT 181-04H | I. Sarmiento
MW 10:00 AM - 11:15 AM D218

World Religions

In this AAPI infused World Religions course, student's will explore devotional and non-devotional aspects of religion as practiced by Asian Americans within the Boston community. Students will incorporate Galtung's typologies of direct, structural, and cultural violence and peace within the their work including their research, writing and presentations.

REL 111 - W1 | T. Matubbar E451
W 6:00 PM - 8:45 PM B114