Community Education

The Office of Community Education at Bunker Hill Community College (BHCC) provides a wide range of lifelong learning and enrichment opportunities for our community by offering classes and programs that are designed with you in mind. Our classes are conveniently scheduled, low cost and taught by talented professionals.

Regardless of your age or educational goals, we offer a class that will keep you current with today’s trends and technologies, help you get ahead in your life and your career, or allow you to simply enjoy yourself.

To enroll in these non-credit courses, there is no state residency requirement, nor is financial aid available. Please note that payment is due in full at registration. If there is a class you would like to take or teach that is not featured, please contact us. For an up-to-date listing of Community Education classes, times, dates, descriptions and to register for a class, visit us online at bhcc.edu/ce or see the inside back cover of this publication.

The Office of Community Education is located in H-Building. Shuttle buses are available from B-Building (250 New Rutherford Ave.) on the Charlestown Campus to H-Building, as well as to the Chelsea Campus.

Telephone: 617-228-2462
Fax: 617-228-2080
Website: bhcc.edu/ce
Email: commed@bhcc.mass.edu
Office Hours: Monday-Friday, 8:30 a.m.-4 p.m.

PARKING PERMITS

Students enrolled in short-term (5 weeks or less) non-credit courses are not required to purchase a parking permit. However, they must request a temporary parking permit. Individuals registering by mail, phone or fax should request it prior to the first class meeting by emailing the Office of Community Education at commed@bhcc.mass.edu. Vehicles parked in BHCC parking areas without a current, valid parking permit will be ticketed and/or towed. No warning notices are given.

REFUND POLICY

Students may cancel enrollment in a Community Education course within two (2) working days prior to the first class meeting and receive a full refund. No refunds will be given after that time.

All Bunker Hill Community College students are now eligible for a BHCC OneCard from Higher One. The cards serve as official BHCC Student ID Cards. The BHCC OneCard is the only means of obtaining refunds for students not paying by credit card.

Students who wish to obtain a BHCC OneCard for refunds or for identification purposes have their photograph taken in the Library. For further assistance with OneCard on the Bunker Hill Community College campus, please call the Library at 617-228-2213.

In order to receive a refund, students must first activate their BHCC OneCard from Higher One (bhcconecard.com). For assistance, please call 877-479-1731.

If a student has paid by credit card, the Student Payment Office will automatically credit the enrollee’s account.

Basic ESL

BASIC ESL OR SOCIAL ESL?
Which should I take?

Basic ESL is for students who wish to advance to Academic ESL. Academic ESL prepares English learners for college classes, leading to certificate or degree programs. If your goal is to earn a certificate or degree at Bunker Hill Community College in the near future, the BESL program is for you. Each level is 60 hours. $375 per course.

Social ESL is for students who wish to improve their English skills for social and work-related purposes. Students taking this option will learn English to help in their current job, improve their chance of getting a better job that requires more English skills, and perform day-to-day activities with greater ease due to improved English skills. Each level is 45 hours. $229 per course.

NEW & IMPROVED BASIC ENGLISH AS A SECOND LANGUAGE

To register for any non-credit Basic English as a Second Language course, students must first take a placement test in the Assessment Center, Room B118. Classes begin September 8, 2015, and end December 20, 2015.

Basic Speak/Listen and Read/Write

BSL-001 $375
This basic literacy course is for non-native speakers of English who want to improve their conversation, pronunciation, reading and writing skills. Students will practice their conversation skills by speaking about interesting topics and improve their pronunciation skills with pronunciation exercises. They will also learn basic writing and reading skills that will include letter and word recognition, spelling and reading comprehension. Students will also learn basic grammar. Total hours: 60

Do you want to master Facebook marketing? Are you looking to get better results from your social media marketing efforts? Are you ready to deepen your knowledge of online business development and relationship marketing? This course will give you the tools to use the social networks effectively for business. We will dive into social media strategies for Facebook, Twitter, Instagram, YouTube, LinkedIn, Google+, and Yelp. These skills can be applied immediately in the workplace or to market a small business. The Social Media Marketing series includes ten two-hour sessions.

W1 Wednesdays 6:30-8:30 p.m.
September 16–December 2, 2015 Room TBD

Session 1: Introduction to Social Media
Every day people are logging on to social media sites such as Facebook, Twitter, LinkedIn and Pinterest. Pinning, Tweeting, watching amateur videos, blogging and updating your status have become as common as turning on the television. This session will provide an overview of the major social media sites. It will also provide some examples of how individuals are using social media to brand themselves and how businesses are using social media as a marketing tool. Topics include:
- Examples of best social media practices
- Proper social media setup
- Using social media tools effectively
- Privacy settings
- Content creation tools

Session 2: There’s a Lot to ‘Like’ About Facebook
In the fast-paced world of social media marketing, some could argue that Facebook still is king (or queen). Do you want to learn how to utilize Facebook to market your business or product? Do you want to feel more engaged with your customers? This workshop will introduce you to the basics of business-based social networking, get you into Facebook for some hands-on learning and generate discussion about the advantages and disadvantages of this phenomenally popular website. Topics will include business pages, groups, events, promotions, applications, targeted advertising and insights, as well as:
- Social networking
- Customer service
- Content marketing
- Analytics
- Follower acquisition
- Ad campaigns
- Sponsored stories
- Calls to action
- Application implementation
- Boost posts
- Best use of photos and videos

Session 3: Advanced Facebook
In a continuation of Session 2, the instructor will expand upon the content previously taught as well as discuss more ways to boost business by using this platform. Topics will include:
- Best practices
- Contests

Session 4: Twitter Launch for Small Business
What is a tweet and why should your customers care? Learn the secrets of engaging with your prospects and existing clients in 140 characters or less. Included will be the five essential best practices for Twitter use for small and growing businesses. Topics will include:
- Content creation
- Proper use of Twitter
- Twitter analytics
- Re-tweeting and favoriting
- Social networking
- Key influencer networking
- Contests
- Sponsored tweets
- Customer service
- Customer acquisition

Session 5: YouTube and Google+ for Business
Google is the most used search engine in the world. Learn to use it to help your customers find your product or service. In this class, you will learn how to create an online presence that will allow customers to feel as though they know you before you communicate with them. You will also learn how to utilize free search engine optimization (SEO). Topics will also include:
- Creating effective videos
- Keyword use
- SEO
- Writing effective copy
- Integrating Google products

Session 6: Pinterest, Instagram and More!
Pinterest and Instagram are taking social media by storm, growing at a much faster pace than Facebook. Learn how to pin, what to pin and how pinning can play a major role in a social media marketing plan for a business. We will also cover Instagram and other applications. This is a lecture class. No time will be spent on personal platforms. Topics will include:

Pinterest:
- How and what to pin
- Best practices
- Branding
- Copywriting
- Tagging
- Pricing
- Networking

Instagram:
- Reposting
- Hashtags
- Branding
- Contests
- Follower tools
- Key influencer networking
- How to make your photos more attractive

Session 7: LinkedIn
LinkedIn has fast become the online networking application of choice. In this class you will learn the features of LinkedIn and how they can help you improve the visibility of your business or find a job. Topics will include: the home page, the profile, recommendations, contracts, groups and jobs. Topics will also include:
- Self-promotion
- Networking
- Business pages
- Content creation

Session 8: Blogging
Blogging helps drive traffic to websites and can even convert that traffic into leads. It establishes the author as an expert in the subject matter that is being covered. It also creates amazing free search engine optimization (SEO) for a site. The content that is created can also be used for social media posts. You will learn how to effectively create a blog. Topics will include:
- Blogging
- Copywriting
- Photo and video integration
- Domain creation

Session 9: Social Media Marketing Plan
During this session, students will present their social media marketing plans and receive feedback from instructors. Students should come prepared with the plan they have developed throughout the duration of the course. This session will also include:
- Social media marketing plan creation
- Marketing funnel creation
- Events
- Content release

Session 10: Social Media Integration
This session will give you the tools you need to integrate your social media marketing efforts. We will discuss companies that have mastered social media. Each student will be given a social media analysis that will include tips from a panel of marketing experts on how to improve their social media marketing.

NEW Mobile App Development Module 1

CPT-129 $170
This five-week module is the first of three designed to introduce mobile app development for smartphones and other devices. Starting with an understanding of iOS, Android and Windows, the “big three” operating systems, and then moving to universal design techniques, this course will provide an overview of the programming languages used in mobile app development. Students will start to code using a drag-and-drop blocks type editor to create their first app for an Android device. By the end of Module 1, students will be able to:
- Describe and differentiate the three major smartphone platforms and their architecture
- Describe development tools
- Explain current device capabilities
- Explain and compare the life cycle of an app on each platform
- Describe best practices for smartphone app development
- Explain key object oriented programming concepts including encapsulation, inheritance and polymorphism
- Use design patterns to aid development
- Understand the key methods of software optimization necessary for smartphones
- Use the MIT AppInventor 2 blocks software to create and deploy an app

Prerequisite: Programming experience helpful but not required.

NEW Mobile App Development Module 2

CPT-129 $170
This five-week module is the second of three designed to introduce mobile app development for smartphones and other devices. Module 2 covers the basics of the different app stores and the types of apps that developers can create. It introduces students to the hardware and software built into smartphones and personal... and home devices. Students will also be introduced to integrated software development environments and the Java programming language. They will learn how to use a graphical layout editor to create an interface for their design and to create more sophisticated Android apps. Students will learn how to package their app and deploy it to a device. They will be introduced to the Swift programming language used in iOS apps as we create an app as a group for iOS devices.

Prerequisite: Programming experience is helpful but not required.

By the end of Module 2, students will be able to:
• Use integrated development environments to create apps for Android and iOS
• Explain and implement classes and application program interfaces (APIs)
• Explain events and implement event handlers
• Explain the differences and similarities between Java and Swift
• Run apps in simulators

W2 Wednesdays 6-9 p.m.  E. Miller
October 7–November 4  H169

Mobile App Development Module 3
CPT-129 $170

This five-week module is the final module, designed to introduce mobile app development for smartphones and other devices. Module 3 introduces development for the Windows phone and other Windows-based devices using either the C# or Visual Basic programming language. Differences between the three major operating systems will be highlighted. Finally, students will be introduced to using application program interfaces to create a cross-platform app as well as a geolocation API.

Prerequisite: Programming experience is helpful but not required.

By the end of Module 3, students will be able to:
• Explain the differences and similarities between the C#, Java and Swift programming languages
• Create apps for Windows phones
• Use the Delegate design pattern to create events and event handlers in C#
• Use services such as SMS and Location on a Windows device
• Create cross-platform apps with PhoneGap

VIDEO GAME DESIGN
for high school students

Maya Foundations–Module 1
CPT-121 $170

This five-week module is the first of three modules designed to provide instruction on creating animated 3D objects using the Maya 3D software tool. Module 1 will instruct the student on the Maya workspace interface, the menu options and the placement and purpose of each of the special-purpose panels required to operate Maya as a software design tool. The student will also be taught the object construction components and the roles of each in the practice of creating 3D models. The student will also learn about the tools and techniques used to modify the construction components into a desired shape such as a boat, automobile, building, character or whatever shape is desired. The student will also delve into the art of creating and assigning colors and lighting to an object or scene.

T1 Tu, Th 3:55-5:15 p.m.
September 8-October 8, 2015

Maya Foundations–Module 2
CPT-123 $170

This five-week module will build on what students learned in Maya Foundations, Module 1. It will focus on further manipulation of polygon objects and also introduce the fundamentals of using NURBS (or curves) modeling techniques for object modeling. The student will be instructed in the purpose and various methods of incorporating both techniques into a completed scene. This module will also instruct the student in the beginning techniques for compositing and animating objects, lighting and object colors in a scene. There will be no class the week of March 16 due to spring break.

Prerequisite: Maya Foundations–Module 1.

T1 Tu, Th 3:55–5:15 p.m.
October 13-November 12, 2015

Maya Foundations–Module 3
CPT-125 $170

If you can imagine it, you can create it. This five-week module will add to the previous two modules by introducing more advanced modeling and animation techniques such as deformations, rigid body, cloth creation and wind and gravity control upon objects. The object animations in this module will include multiple objects and how they can collide with other objects to obtain real-world collision effects. Module 3 will also cover the creation and application of texture shaders to make a 3D object appear as a brick wall, an old wooden bench, an orange on a table, a glass filled with milk or a sky full of stars.

Prerequisite: A basic understanding of computers.

THE EARLY CHILDHOOD DEVELOPMENT INSTITUTE (ECI)

Skill development for early childhood professionals

The Early Childhood Development Institute offers both credit and non-credit courses for those working in early care and education programs. These courses provide knowledge and skill development beyond the introductory course level. This allows staff to broaden their knowledge and understanding, and promotes a higher quality of care for children and families in the Greater Boston area.

What/How of Emergent Curriculum and the Project Approach of ECE ECI-311 $110

Emergent curriculum and the project approach go beyond the traditional method of planning program activities and curricula for young children in the classroom. Using the latest research to incorporate children’s interests into program curriculum, this module examines the methods of emergent curriculum. Students will receive 15 hours of EEC Professional Development training, equivalent to 1.5 CEUs. Prerequisite: Grade of C or better in ECE-103 or equivalent. Recommended: ECE-104.

S1 Saturdays 12-4 p.m. M. Geisser
September 12-October 3, 2015 B114

Project Planning Emergent ECI-312 $110

Determining children’s interests requires observation and reflection. Teachers must be attentive to what is happening around children and what excites them, frightens them and piques their curiosity. Where to begin the project approach is all about the skills of observing the children in the classroom. Students will receive 15 hours of EEC Professional Development training, equivalent to 1.5 CEUs. Prerequisite: Grade of C or better in ECE-103 or equivalent. Recommended: ECE-104.

S1 Saturdays 12-4 p.m. M. Geisser
October 10-October 31, 2015 B114

Project Planning—Pushing Beyond Beginnings ECI-313 $110

Considering how long a project should last is tricky. How to keep the children interested and how to end the project are also essential ingredients of a successful project. How does a classroom “document” the learning that children have obtained? Prerequisite: Grade of C or better in ECE 103 or equivalent. Recommended: ECE 104 prior to enrolling in course. Students will receive 15 hours of EEC Professional Development training equivalent to 1.5 CEUs.

S1 Saturdays 12-4 p.m. M. Geisser
