About This Program
While every effort is made to ensure accuracy in this Commencement program, printing deadlines may result in the omission of some names and the inclusion of the names of persons not completing graduation requirements as intended. This printed program, therefore, should not be used to determine a student’s final academic or degree status. Final degree status is reflected on a student’s transcript, and part of their permanent record, once all degree requirements are completed. Student’s academic records are maintained by the Registrar.

President’s Distinguished Service Awardee

Presented by President Eddinger to the Honorable Sal N. DiDomenico, Massachusetts State Senator

This award is presented annually at Commencement to an individual who has rendered extraordinary service to our community and to the students of Bunker Hill Community College.

The College honors Sal N. DiDomenico, a long-time advocate for community colleges and friend of the College, for his commitment to enhancing the lives of his constituents and residents across the Commonwealth. Since his election to the Senate, Senator DiDomenico has been a vocal advocate of ensuring high quality and accessible early education for children in the Commonwealth and improving economic opportunity for working families.

Senator DiDomenico has filed several major pieces of legislation that have been signed into law focusing on issues of community development, education, children’s health, election laws, human services and public safety. A stalwart supporter for language opportunity and asset-based education, Senator DiDomenico sponsored a bill proposing reform in bilingual education across the Commonwealth in 2017.

2018 Commencement Speaker

The Honorable Rosalin Acosta, Secretary of Labor and Workforce Development in Massachusetts

State Secretary Rosalin Acosta is a recognized leader, public speaker and cultural ambassador on matters of diversity, motivating youth and Latino leadership. She was named among Boston’s Most Influential Women by the Women of the Harvard Club, El Planeta’s Top 100 Most Influential Hispanics in Massachusetts and Get Konnected’s 100 Most Influential People of Color in Boston.

Before joining the Baker-Polito administration, Acosta gained respect as a financial and banking service professional. She has more than 30 years of experience at Greater Boston financial institutions, and has served in many community and civic capacities.

Born in Cuba, Acosta came to the United States at the age of four. She earned a Bachelor of Arts from Wesleyan University in Connecticut where she was a member of the Women’s Varsity Ice Hockey Team. She is the proud mother of five children.

The Hunger Team comprises a group of College faculty and staff who advocate for immediate and long-term solutions to food insecurity for Bunker Hill Community College and other institutions of higher education.

During 2017, the Hunger Team accomplished front-line and policy goals that catapulted the Hunger Initiative forward. Highlights included the inaugural convening of the Voices of Hunger, a state-wide gathering of higher education practitioners to share best practices in basic needs services and policies. The convening is now rotating annually to the public colleges, furthering awareness, practices and momentum.

The Hunger Team is also participating in a research grant with the Wisconsin Hope Lab to examine the link between food security and college success. Equally important is the Hunger Team’s support of policy work in tracking the first-ever Food Insecurity study undertaken by the Federal General Accountability Office, to be completed in early Fall 2018. The study will provide data for analysis and to ground future policy work.
Honors Graduates

During the Commencement Exercises, you will notice the gold tassels which distinguish the caps of some candidates for the associate degree. These students, the honors graduates of the class of 2018, have consistently demonstrated high academic achievement while attending the College. Students receiving their degrees with honors are in three categories: Honors, High Honors and Highest Honors. Honors graduates are denoted by a “*” symbol in the program.

Alpha Kappa Mu Honor Society

The Alpha Kappa Mu Honor Society is a chapter of the National Honor Society, Phi Theta Kappa. The emblem of Phi Theta Kappa is a gold key. Across the center is a black band upon which appear the Greek letters, “Phi,” “Theta” and “Kappa,” standing for wisdom, aspiration and purity. During the ceremony, graduates who are members of the Alpha Kappa Mu Honor Society can be identified by the gold Phi Theta Kappa stole worn over the regular academic gown. Alpha Kappa Mu Honor Society graduates are denoted by a “º” symbol in the program.

Bunker Hill Community College

Commonwealth Honors Program

The Honors Program offers students from any academic discipline the opportunity to study and learn in an academically challenging and enriching learning environment. During the ceremony, graduates who have completed the Honors Program can be identified by a gold medallion.

Degree Candidates

Degree candidates listed in this program have been identified as eligible to participate in the Commencement ceremony. Participation in the ceremony and/or listings in the program does not constitute conferral of degree or awarding of honors. Cumulative Grade Point Average (GPA) used to identify Honors graduates was based on the GPA prior to the printing of the program and may not reflect the final GPA. Eligibility for Honors will be reevaluated for pending graduates when GPAs are final and may be different from what is listed in this program.

Modern Scholars in Ancient Garb

The color and pageantry marking a college Commencement are rooted in long tradition. The caps and gowns worn by the faculty and the graduating class are also inherited from early medieval universities. Scholars of those days wore the gown and its attached hood for the dual purpose of keeping warm in the drafty, unheated buildings, and of identifying the particular clerical order to which they belonged.

The Gown

The style of the modern academic gown is based on an intercollegiate code established in 1895. The gown is commonly black, differing in type according to the level of the degree held. Gowns of some American and foreign institutions are often of red and other brilliant hues.

The doctor’s gown is paneled in velvet, and has bell-shaped sleeves, each trimmed with three matching velvet bars. The velvet may be black or of the color representing the field of learning in which the degree was earned.

Master’s, bachelor’s and associate gowns have no velvet panels or trims. Sleeves of the master’s are extra long, and are open either at the forearm or the wrist. Those of the bachelor’s and associate gown are pointed and are normal sleeve length.

The Cap

The mortarboard cap is proper for all American degrees, and is worn both indoors and out on all occasions when gowns are used. The tassel, worn over the left front quarter of the cap, may be black or may be in a color representing the degree.

The Hood

The hood is the most striking feature of the costume. Its shape, size and colors show both the degree of the wearer and the college which conferred it, so that anyone attending an academic function in America can distinguish holders of bachelor’s, master’s and doctor’s degrees.

The shell or base of the hood is invariably black, but the lining is the color of the college or university granting the degree. As the faculty and platform party march down the aisle at Commencement, the audience will see the official colors of many colleges and universities represented in the hoods of the participants. Some of these are: Cornell University, carnelian with two white chevrons; Harvard University, crimson; Columbia University, light blue with white chevron; Tufts University, brown and blue.

College trustees or members of boards are permitted to wear a doctor’s gown, but the hood they wear must designate only the degree they actually hold. The president of a college is entitled to wear a specially-designed costume. Trustees and other members of the official party, such as Marshals, may also wear specially-designed caps and gowns. At Bunker Hill Community College, the President, Trustees and Marshals appear in academic regalia which shows the colors of the College—red and white—and which designate, by the use of slight design differences, the office held.

Graduates of two-year colleges are awarded an associate in arts or associate in science degree or a certificate. Successful candidates for the associate degree and the certificate wear a bachelor’s gown without a hood.

Divisions of the Procession

The academic procession at Commencement is made up of three divisions: The candidates for degrees and certificates; members of the faculty; and the President of the College, the Commencement speaker, the Trustees and other dignitaries or officers of the College.

The entire company is led by the Chief Marshal bearing a mace, originally a weapon of defense and a centuries-old symbol of academic authority.

A college or university Commencement symbolizes the induction of the graduates into the guild of scholars, whose tradition reaches back through centuries of western civilization to include all those who sought learning. Graduates can take pride in participating in such an ancient and honorable rite.
