

Here's what's new in the library:

The beginning of the fall 2016 semester is upon us and as you begin your classes and you start your assignments, the BHCC librarians are available to assist with all of your research help needs.

For Faculty

Don't forget that there is still time to place items on course reserve, e.g. books, articles and other materials, for the fall semester 2016.

Focus on the BHCC Archives

The Bunker Hill Community College Archives contains physical, digital, photo and audio collections.

You can use the Archives to:

- Conduct research for assignments, papers, and projects:
- Learn more about the history of the College
- Learn more about the individuals – faculty, staff, students, and alumni – associated with the college, and hear their stories

Here are some photos from the Archives:

Collection News

The Library has subscribed to a new database, Poetry & Short Story Reference Collection from EBSCO. The database contains information on thousands of authors and their works across literary disciplines and timeframes.

Find it on the databases page under Literature:

<http://www.bhcc.mass.edu/library/databases/bysubject/>

Collection Development

We take pride in our collection and want to make sure the community takes advantage of our resources. If there is something that you would like to see included in the library collection, please email us at:

bhcclibrary@bhcc.mass.edu

You can also fill out a collection suggestion form here.

New Books
