Scope and Contents

This collection consists of the Bunker Hill Community College Magazine, an ongoing publication created by the Integrated Marketing and Communications department. The collection ranges from 2006 to 2025. Published biannually since 2006, the magazine is composed of articles covering campus events, news involving the college in Massachusetts and nationally, interviews with local and state politicians, and news regarding programs created by BHCC for students. The materials are text-based, consisting exclusively of magazines. There is a gap within the collection's materials as the 2021-2024 issues of the magazine are not physically available.
